The New Grove
Dictionary Of Music & Musicians

6th edition, edited by Stanley Sadie

The New Grove is the world's greatest music encyclopedia. The culmination of 12 years of work, this 20-volume set is packed with information on the history and development of music, musical forms, terms and definitions, instruments, musical cities and, above all, composers and performers. The New Grove's analysis of the choral repertoire is unique. Major articles include:

Chorus: 18 pages
Hymn: 16 pages
Psalms & Psalmody: 63 pages
Chorale & Chorale Settings: 27 pages
Notation: 88 pages
Heinrich Schütz: 37 pages
Palestrina: 19 pages
Purcell: 18 pages
The Bach Family: 104 pages
... and more.

Entries on composers include detailed, full worklists - these alone are a valuable resource for choir directors.

Take advantage of the best offer since publication: order your set of The New Grove before May 31, 1994 and save $800 off the list price of $2,300 - you pay only $1,500. Or spread payments over one year interest free - you still pay only $1,500. For further details call us today!

The CORNERSTONE

For Choral Directors and Singers: An Opportunity for Enrichment and Professional Growth

- ☐ Learn to apply proven, well-defined and practical choral techniques;
- ☐ Review selections suitable for adult and youth choirs in church and school;
- ☐ Through performance of a few selected pieces, experience the special musical sensitivity that results from careful rehearsal;
- ☐ Participate in the unique Cornerstone format using narration in a rich musical setting.

Workshop Clinicians

Dr. Bruce Vantine is founder and conductor of The Cornerstone Choral & Brass, a nationally recruited, professional ensemble, performing fine choral music augmented by narration.

He holds degrees from Concordia College, where he studied under Paul J. Christiansen; Michigan State University; and the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, (D.M.A.), where he studied with Dr. Harold Decker. He was Director of Choral Music at the University of Missouri-St. Louis for 13 years. His published pieces are performed nationwide.

Workshop Location

activities at Millikin University. Kay Hoffland, an accomplished accompanist and teacher, served as Assistant Choral Director for the Millikin Choir.

During the Hofflands' 32-year tenure, the Millikin Choir won international recognition. They regularly tour with Cornerstone Choral and work as consultants to church and school programs.

For 38 summers, the Hofflands were staff members of the Paul Christiansen Choral Schools.

Richard Hoffland is Professor Emeritus of Choral Activities at Millikin University.

Rolf Anderson has taught junior and senior high vocal music for 25 years and currently teaches in Willmar, Minnesota.

He received his B.A. in public school music from Concordia College and his M.M.Ed. from Millikin University. Anderson has served on the board of the Minnesota ACDA.

He directs a 35-voice adult choir at Bethel Lutheran Church and frequently serves as a vocal music adjudicator and clinician.
